Eagle Ranch Golf Resort is open year round in Invermere, British Columbia. Our majestic golf course is open from early April to mid October, while our clubhouse is open year round, providing a variety of food & beverage options and a boutique style golf shop with everything a golfer would want.

Located in the "sunbelt" of the Canadian Rockies, Eagle Ranch is perched on bluffs overlooking the Columbia River, world-renowned wetlands and the shimmering blue waters of Lake Windermere.

Over the next few years, Eagle Ranch will evolve into a world-class destination resort, its intimate village centre bustling with activity and its boutique shops, restaurants, coffee shops, art galleries and lodge hotel wrapped up in a level of service that's second to none. A limited number of luxury condominiums and secluded homesites are the finishing touches on this world-class sanctuary.

At Eagle Ranch, we deliver an exceptional golfing experience and every team member is inspired to exceed expectations. Our approach to resort development and operations is simple - we strive to provide the ultimate guest experience - which means hiring and retaining employees who strive for excellence in all that they do. This is not extraordinary for us; it comes as second nature to every member of our team.
